

THE CREATIVITY COMPASS

CHRISTINE LEISER

CREATIVITY

That's a loaded word,
creativity...
What does it actually mean?
And how do I access and explore it in my own life?
How can I harness my own creativity to manifest my best,
most fulfilling life?

In the Creativity Compass, you'll learn what makes you tick, what turns you on when it comes to your own creativity, and how to access that information and use it whenever you need to feel more creative and need some help manifesting the life you long to lead.

Let's explore the word "creativity". The dictionary definition is: "the use of the imagination or original ideas, especially in the production of an artistic work." I would add that there is not a more artistic production than our own lives.

FIRST OF ALL:

EVERYONE IS CREATIVE. YES, EVEN YOU. ESPECIALLY YOU. ALLOW YOURSELF TO EXPLORE THAT AND TO CREATE THE THINGS YOU'LL LOVE!

First, we'll be thinking about the activities that you love, that excite you, that bring you joy. Then we'll work on incorporating them into your daily life.

SO, WHAT'S THE PLAN?

What are the actual steps that you'll take in this exercise?

1 EXPLORE:

You'll list all of the things that bring you joy, that light you up, that feel the juiciest to you.

2 MIND MAP:

You'll create a mind map that you can refer to again and again and adjust per your needs and desires.

3 PLAN:

Pick a few of your favorite ideas and we'll make them come to life as we play with how you can incorporate these into your life.

4 EXECUTE:

Let's get those desires into your daily life. What might you do if you had more than one life to live at a time?
